

*I walk down the garden paths,
And all the daffodills
Are blowing, and the bright blue squills.*
Amy Lowell

*But all the gardens
Of spring and summer were blooming in the tall tales
Beyond the border and under the lark full cloud.*
Dylan Thomas

Garden folk are invariably kindly folk.
Jack Miner

The summer comes with flower and bee . . .
Felicia Dorothea Hemans

The best place to seek for God is in the garden.

You can dig for him there.

George Bernard Shaw

... gardeners ... live more by dreams and catalogue

descriptions than normal people do.

Frederick McGourty

Grow, damn you!
J.F.C. Wright

The end of June is not too late to begin spring yard work . . .
Sara Williams

I'd like to . . . say a few words about instant gratification as it pertains to gardening.

It doesn't exist.
Cassandra Danz

A true appreciation of the passing seasons is one of the greatest pleasures that a garden can provide . . .
Graham Rose